

To Registrants in the “Arab Spring” Alumnae Continuing Education Class, Winter 2012:

“Arab Spring” was a very popular class. Instead of turning away over a hundred of our students, we were fortunate to find a nearby venue that could accommodate us when nothing was available on campus. Some sessions of the “Arab Spring” class on Tuesday mornings will be held at Beth Emet Synagogue at Ridge and Dempster in Evanston. It is about one mile from campus.

- Beth Emet’s address is 1224 Dempster Street, on the southwest corner of Ridge and Dempster.
- Buses will pick up at Ryan Field and unload at Beth Emet. After class, buses will go from Beth Emet to the Arts Circle on campus and then return to Ryan Field.
- Limited parking is available at Beth Emet only for those with handicapped parking permits. Ample parking is available on nearby streets, especially Crain and Asbury to the south and west.
- Enter the building via the main entrance on Dempster, not the school building.
- Coffee, tea, water and pastries will be available at Beth Emet for purchase.
- Food and drink may be brought into the back portion of the classroom but not into the sanctuary space.
